Houston's Premier Music Venue

From the '80s until the late '90s it was a Houston rock staple, and now stands as an iconic music venue & event space in Houston, Texas!

Opening in 1979, acts like Stevie Ray Vaughan, Roy Orbison, B.B. King, James Brown, Muddy Waters, Ray Charles, Warren Zevon, Dwight Yoakam, Bonnie Raitt, Widespread Panic, and the Fabulous Thunderbirds all played the venue near the corner of Washington Avenue and Heights Boulevard.

No doubt many Houstonians have celebrated some great moments inside the former Heights State Bank, which was rumored to have been hit by the infamous bank-robbing couple Bonnie Parker and Clyde Barrow in 1931. That was never proven, as most every bank robbery at the time was attributed to the deadly duo. It's a fun story, though.
